Check out our Frequently Asked Questions page (FAQ) or schedule a call with us today! About Us Contact Us Yes. We require students to wear uniforms to school to support the school's mission. Compliance with the Uniform Dress Code (UDC) is mandatory. To attend class, all students must be in compliance with all aspects of the UDC. Furthermore, the UDC applies when students are riding the school bus and when attending extra-curricular events. The UDC can be found at the school's website. In general, students must present a clean, modest, and neat appearance. Clothing must be worn right side out, of appropriate size, and worn correctly. Clothing shall not have holes or be intentionally torn. Clothing items must be one solid color. Throughout the school day and at extracurricular events, Staff will conduct a dress code check to ensure the students are in compliance. Staff have authority to determine whether clothing is inappropriate or a distraction. When students are deemed to be out of compliance, the following discipline procedure will apply, at the discretion of Staff. The school may notify parents/legal guardians and require parents/legal guardians to bring compliant clothing to school for their child; and/or Students may receive a yellow card; and/or Repeat violations will result in further school discipline; and/or Consequences described in the Conduct & Consequences Matrix ("CCM"). In the pre-k program at American Leadership Academy, Applied Technologies, Little Leaders focus on preparing for kindergarten. In our kindergarten programs, we model American Leadership Academy's K-12 Core Knowledge Sequence and align our lessons to Arizona Early Learning Standards. Each of these concepts and skills help students succeed in language, literacy, social development, communication, and physical development right from the beginning, and all in a preschool near you. Apply Today Welcome to Little Leaders at Applied Technologies, located at 7729 E Pecos Rd. Here, our youngest scholars share their campus with future educators, benefiting from a rich, diverse, and high-quality educational environment. This one-of-a-kind program not only imparts foundational knowledge to our preschoolers but also provides high school students with hands-on training in early childhood education under the guidance of our accomplished educators. By nurturing dreams from preschool to high school, we're creating a community where everyone learns, grows, and thrives. Curious about our unique approach?
