With a scheduled savings transfer, money is transferred automatically from your checking account to your savings account. How much you transfer is up to you.One of the big advantages is the interest your money earns in a savings account that it may not earn in a checking account. Whether you need money for a vacation, new car, down payment on a house or anything else, the scheduled transfer helps take the work out of saving.To set up your automatic transfers, simply log in to Online Banking and select the Transfers tab. Or, you can visit your nearest financial center, where an associate will be happy to assist you.New to Online Banking?
