

Click to prove you're human

Drivers exam minnesota

Complete this task to confirm you are a human generating this request. Thank you! The Minnesota DMV practise examinations have been updated for January 2025. It includes questions based on the Minnesota Driver Handbook's most essential traffic signals and laws for 2025. Use actual questions that are very similar (often.. Read More The Minnesota DMV practise examinations have been updated for January 2025. It includes questions based on the Minnesota Driver Handbook's most essential traffic signals and laws for 2025. Use actual questions that are very similar (often identical!) to the DMV driving permit test and driver's licence exam to study for the DMV driving permit test and driver's licence exam. On the practise exam, each question gets a tip and explanation to help you remember the concepts. The written component of the official Minnesota DMV test will include questions about traffic rules, traffic signs, and driving statutes, as well as knowledge from the Driver Handbook. To obtain a passing grade, you must correctly answer 32 of the 40 questions. To help you prepare for your instruction permit or driver's licence, take our Minnesota DMV practise test. The DMV exam is available in several languages. Using any kind of testing assistance will result in an automatic fail, and the DMV may take additional action against your driver's licence, so stay away from it. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 Grade This Section Go to next section To obtain a driver's license in Minnesota, you need to pass a knowledge test and a road test. You must also provide proof of identity, date of birth, and social security number. If you're under 18, you need to complete driver's education and have a parent or guardian's signature on your application. In Minnesota, the cost to acquire a driver's license varies based on age and type. For a Class D license, it's $32 for ages 18-20, $25.25 for ages 21-64, $20.75 for ages 65 and older. For a provisional driver's license (under 18), it's $19.25. Additional fees may apply for tests or other services. In Minnesota, the minimum age to obtain a provisional driver's license is 16. However, teenagers can get a learner's permit at 15, provided they are enrolled in driver's education. They must also log at least 50 hours of supervised driving time, including 15 hours at night, before they can apply for a provisional license. When applying for a driver's license in Minnesota, you need to provide one primary and one secondary document. Primary documents include a valid passport or birth certificate. Secondary documents can be your Social Security card or certified school transcript. If you're under 18, a parent or guardian's signature on the application is required. In Minnesota, you can schedule a driving test online through the Department of Public Safety's Driver and Vehicle Services division. You may also call your local DVS exam station to make an appointment. Be sure to bring your instructional permit, vehicle with proof of insurance, and fee for the road test. To get a learner's permit in Minnesota, you must be at least 15 years old and enrolled in a state-approved driver's education course. You'll need to pass a knowledge test and vision exam, provide proof of identity, Social Security number, Minnesota residency, and driver's ed enrollment. You'll also need a parent or guardian's approval if under 18. In Minnesota, if you're under 18, you must complete at least 50 hours of supervised driving practice, 15 of which must be at night. If your parent or guardian completes a state-approved parent awareness course, the required practice hours drop to 40, with 15 still needing to be at night. To prepare for the driving test in Minnesota, practice driving in different conditions and routes. Familiarize yourself with the vehicle you'll use for the test. Read the Minnesota Driver's Manual thoroughly to understand road rules and signs. Practice parallel parking, stopping, turning, and lane changing. Also, take online practice tests to gauge your readiness. Common mistakes to avoid during your driving test include not checking mirrors regularly, failing to signal or incorrect use of signals, poor steering control, misunderstanding road signs or signals, incorrect positioning on the road, and failing to make a complete stop at stop signs. Remember to stay calm, be aware of your surroundings, and follow all traffic laws. Yes, in Minnesota, you are allowed to use your personal car for the driving test. However, the vehicle must be in good working condition, including functioning lights and safety belts. Additionally, you must show proof of insurance and current registration for the vehicle. If you fail your driving test in Minnesota, you will not receive your driver's license. You must wait at least one day before retaking the test. If you fail multiple times, further waiting periods may apply. It's recommended to practice and address the issues that caused the failure before reattempting. Fees may apply for each retest. Yes, in Minnesota, newly licensed drivers under 18 have restrictions for the first six months. They cannot drive between midnight and 5 a.m. unless accompanied by a licensed driver of 25 or older. They also can't carry more than one passenger under 20 unless accompanied by a parent or guardian. Exceptions are made for family members or if the driver is going to/from work or school. No, in Minnesota, you cannot apply for a driver's license online. You must visit a Driver and Vehicle Services (DVS) exam station in person. The process involves passing a vision screening, knowledge test, and road test. Also, you need to provide proof of identity, residency, and payment for the license fee. Whether you can drive in other states with a Minnesota learner's permit depends on the rules of the state you're visiting. Some states may honor an out-of-state learner's permit, while others may not. It's essential to check with the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) in the state you plan to visit before you travel. In Minnesota, a standard driver's license is valid for four years. The expiration date is typically on your birthday. If you are 21 years or older, your license will state "Under 21" until you turn 21, even if the four-year validity period extends past your 21st birthday. Always renew your license before it expires to avoid penalties. Yes, you can renew your Minnesota driver's license online if you don't need to change your name, address, or signature, and if your current license is not expired for more than one year. You will need your Minnesota driver's license or ID number and a valid email address for this process. International students or foreign residents in Minnesota must first pass a written knowledge test and vision exam to receive an instruction permit. After practicing driving, they can take a road test. They need to provide proof of legal presence in the US, two residency documents for Minnesota, and their Social Security number (if they have one). A driver's license grants full driving privileges with no restrictions, while a learner's permit allows a person to drive only under certain conditions. In Minnesota, permit holders under 18 must be accompanied by a licensed driver 21 or older. They're also required to complete a certain amount of supervised driving before they can apply for a driver's license. Yes, in Minnesota, there are vision-related prerequisites for obtaining a driver's license. Your vision must be at least 20/40 in your best eye, with or without corrective lenses. If your vision is worse than 20/40 but better than 20/70, you may be restricted to daylight driving only. If it's worse than 20/70, you may not be eligible for a license. Yes, you may use a rental vehicle for your driving test in Minnesota, but there are conditions. The person taking the test must be listed as an authorized driver on the rental agreement. Also, the vehicle must be in safe working condition, insured, and have a current registration. It's advised to check with the rental company's policy before scheduling your test. In Minnesota, if you fail your driving test, you must wait at least one day before retaking it. However, if you fail the test four times, you'll be required to wait at least 30 days before your next attempt. It's important to use this time to practice the skills where improvement is needed. To take the DMV written test in Minnesota, you'll need to provide proof of identification, which could be a birth certificate, passport, or state ID. You also need to provide your Social Security number. If you're under 18, you'll need a parent or guardian's signature on the application form. Lastly, you'll need to pay the required testing fee. Yes, in Minnesota, the DMV written test can be taken in several languages other than English. These include Spanish, Hmong, Vietnamese, Russian, Somali, and more. If you need an interpreter or a test in a language not offered, you can arrange this with the DMV ahead of time. In Minnesota, if you fail the DMV written test, you must wait until the next day to retake it. There's no limit on how many times you can retake the written test, but each attempt requires a $10 fee. It's advisable to study the Minnesota Driver's Manual thoroughly before reattempting the test. In Minnesota, if you fail the DMV written test, you must wait until the next day to retake it. There's no limit to how many times you can retake the test, but each attempt requires a fee. Make sure to review the Minnesota Driver's Manual before retaking the test. Back to Program Home Updated for June 2025Based on official Minnesota Driver's manualThe Minnesota DVS knowledge test has 40 multiple-choice questions on traffic signs, road rules, and safe driving practices, among other areas. You are expected to get at least 32 correct, with a passing score of 80% or higher. The exam is designed to assess your knowledge of Minnesota's specific driving laws and practices, and it is divided into several focus areas:Test sectionQuestionsCommon challengesTraffic signs12-15Not recognizing the differences between signs that have similar shapes or colors. Focus on understanding the meaning behind each color and shape to avoid confusion on the test.Road rules12-15Misinterpreting laws regarding right-of-way, stopping, and parking regulations. Pay special attention to rules that differ from those in neighboring states or commonly misunderstood areas like school zones and intersections.Safe driving habits10-13Failing to understand the importance of maintaining safe distances, proper lane usage, and defensive driving techniques. Review scenarios that test your response to road hazards and high-traffic situations.Common challenges faced by test-takers in Minnesota often include misidentifying traffic signs, misunderstanding specific state road rules, and neglecting to study safe driving practices.Practice test descriptionThis Minnesota DVS practice test has been freshly updated for June 2025 to cover 20 of the most crucial road signs and traffic rules from the official 2025 MN Driver Handbook. The real exam contains 40 questions, and you need at least 32 correct answers to pass. Known as the Minnesota permit test, DVS knowledge exam, or simply the driver's knowledge test, this practice set closely mirrors the actual format to boost your chances of success.Study strategies and test day tipsTailored study strategiesDevelop a personalized study plan that allows you to review each section thoroughly. Use the official Minnesota Driver's Manual to get in-depth knowledge of each test topic. Utilize flashcards and practice identifying signs by color and shape, ensuring quick recall during the test.Regularly take timed practice tests to simulate real exam conditions. This will help you manage your time effectively and pinpoint areas that need further review. Make sure to review your mistakes and focus on the topics that challenge you the most.Test day preparation tipsBring all required documents to the test center, including your identification, proof of residency, and any necessary fees. Arrive early to allow time for check-in and to calm any nerves. Read each question carefully, considering all answer choices before selecting your response.Stay calm and focused throughout the test. Remember, the more prepared you are, the more confident you'll feel. Keep your mistakes to a minimum, as the passing limit is set at 8 errors or fewer. Trust in your preparation and approach each question methodically.Success stories from Minnesota driversMany drivers in Minnesota have successfully passed their DVS knowledge exam using our practice tests. Here are a few of their experiences:"Driving Tests got me a perfect score. What an amazing resource! I took my Knowledge test yesterday and got a perfect score! I could not have done that without studying with the resources on Driving Tests. Every test question I encountered on the real test was a question I had reviewed on Driving Tests. I'm really grateful for this resource." -- Geej Mauriva, Minneapolis, MN"This site is fantastic for my students. We use it to prepare for our final test. The kids like using it. Very easy to access. Thank you for having this information available for my students." -- Rick Sczublewski, Driver Education Instructor, Freshwater Education District, Staples, MinnesotaWe highly recommend using our practice tests and the Minnesota Driver's Manual to ensure a solid understanding of the material and maximize your chances of passing on your first attempt. Pass the first time with Premium Minnesota's basic speed law requires you to drive _____ under existing conditions.When you wish to change lanes or make a turn, you must _____ to inform other motorists of your intentions.When a vehicle is properly parallel parked, its wheels on the curb side must be positioned_____.What does this sign mean?On urban or town roads, the legal speed limit under ideal driving conditions is _____ unless traffic signs indicate otherwise.Never pass on a curve or hill where you cannot clearly see the road ahead forWhen making a right turn, look right and left, yield the right-of-way, and turn the steering wheel withWhat does this sign indicate?Backing up is not allowed on freeways or expressways EXCEPT forWhile driving a car equipped with airbags, do not place your hands on the steering wheel at _____ positions.What must you do when you approach or pass a stopped emergency vehicle with its lights flashing on a road with two lanes in your direction?What does this sign mean?You are more likely to survive a car crash if you use _____ together. When passing another vehicle, you mustAnyone who flees a police officer using a motor vehicle may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more thanWhat does this sign mean?Which of the following activities is illegal for provisional license holders to perform on their cell phones while driving?When you see a school bus stopped with its red lights flashing and its stop arm extended, you must _____ unless it is stopped on the opposite side of a separated (divided) roadway.When two vehicles reach an intersection at the same time and there is no traffic light or signal there,What does this sign mean? Experience the Driving-Tests difference Since our foundation in 2010, Driving-Tests.org has led the way in online driver's education, with over a decade of experience. Our dedicated experts, bringing together more than 50 years of collective expertise, have established us as the largest non-governmental organization in the U.S. solely focused on driver education. We go beyond the official manuals, offering unique interactive experiences and support like audio guides and an AI Assistant, to cater to different learning styles and needs. Helping hundreds of thousands to ace their tests, our resources have earned a 4.7-star rating from over 14,500 reviews. Our goal is to make your path to becoming a confident driver as straightforward and effective as possible. Calculating your test results Your test results are readyPass the First Time - Guaranteed!Before you view your test results, discover how you can pass faster with Premium:Real Exam-Like Minnesota QuestionsGet 650+ questions seen on the real test!If you don't pass, it costs you nothing!97% Premium Users Pass on Their First TryCompare with the average US passing rate of 49% Pass official DVS written examOnce you reach this place with 80% Passing Probability, you will be ready to pass the official DVS written exam with ease and confidence. Not available in Flashcard Mode Are you nervous about taking your Minnesota road test? Perhaps you're not sure what to bring, or you want to practice the driving skills you'll be tested on, or you simply want to confirm that you're eligible to take your test. Knowing what to expect allows you to effectively prepare; and proper preparation is essential if you want to confidently take and pass your test. Minnesota Road Test Requirements There are multiple requirements that you must satisfy to be able to take the road test, also known as the driving skills test - this applies both to you as a driver, and the testing vehicle that you will be taking the test in. Driver Requirements in Minnesota, the road test requirements will vary depending on your age. If you're age 18 or under: You must be at least 16.You must have completed driver education.You must have had an instruction permit for at least six months.You must have maintained a violation-free driving record for six months.You must have completed the required number of driving hours and have filled out your driving log. If you're over age 18, driver education is not required and you only need to have held your instruction permit for three months. Vehicle Requirements As mentioned above, you'll drive your own vehicle during the driving skills test. Make sure that it has valid registration and insurance; you'll need to present proof at the driver licensing office. Additionally, your vehicle must function properly, and a quick vehicle check will take place immediately before your exam. You'll want to make sure that lights (headlights, taillights, brake lights, turn signals), seat belts, doors, etc. are working properly. Scheduling Your Minnesota Driving Skills Test If you're ready to take your skills test, go ahead and pre-apply online to save time at the Minnesota driver licensing office. Then schedule an appointment at an office near you. Special COVID-19 Modifications COVID-19 has caused a few modifications to be made to the road test. After you check in at the Minnesota driver licensing office and present the correct documents, you'll have to answer a few health-related questions. After the vehicle check, you'll be asked to sanitize the area around the front passenger seat. Your examiner will wear a face mask and gloves, and you'll be expected to bring and wear a face mask as well. While the driving test is taking place, windows must be rolled down. In the case of an automatic failure, the test will immediately terminate for the sake of efficiency. Apart from the above modifications, the road test itself is unchanged. The Minnesota Road Test Be sure you've located your important documents and checked your vehicle to make sure everything is ready before heading to the Minnesota DVS office on the day of your road test. What Should You Bring to the DVS? If you do not have the following documents with you on test day, you will not be allowed to take the Minnesota road test. This is required for all applicants. A valid instruction permit.Their social security number.A vehicle that is properly insured and registered and is working safely.Proof of registration and insurance for your vehicle.Testing/licensing fees. Additionally, if you're under the age of 18, you'll need to bring: Proof of driver education completion.A completed and signed driving log.If needed, proof of supplemental parental curriculum completion.A parent or guardian who is willing to sign/approve your license application. Pre-Test Before you begin your actual driving test, you'll be tested on correctly using the controls in your car. Make sure you're able to correctly use your seat adjustments. Your seat should be in the correct position before you begin driving.Be sure to correctly wear your safety belt.Learn how to work your emergency/parking brake.Know how to work your headlights, including high and low beams. You should be able to use your hazard lights as well.Be able to use your car horn.Be able to work your windshield wipers, as well as the defroster and fan controls.Make sure you know how to adjust your mirrors (rearview mirror and side mirrors). What Maneuvers are Tested on the Road Test in Minnesota? You'll be tested on a variety of driving maneuvers, which include basic road skills in addition to a couple of closed-course maneuvers. You should be comfortable with these basic driving skills, which should be habitual by now. Practice them any time you're behind the wheel. The list below is a brief summary of what you should know: Controlling your vehicle: Keep your vehicle in the center of your lane. Accelerate and brake smoothly, and know how to use your lights, windshield wipers, defrost, and other vehicle controls. Responding to conditions: Adjust your speed and following distance based on road conditions, weather conditions, and traffic conditions. Understanding traffic signs/signals: Watch for signs and signals and obey them. Turning: If necessary, move into the correct lane well before the turn. Use your turn signal, slow down, and turn smoothly into the correct lane. You should know how to make both right and left turns. Staying aware: Watch for other vehicles and pedestrians, and give others the right-of-way when necessary. Always be a courteous and considerate driver. Difficult Maneuvers Additionally, the following specific maneuvers are tested on the Minnesota road test. These may require a bit more practice as they aren't done as much in everyday driving. You should know how to parallel park. Drive slowly and continually check out your back window. Don't hit the curb or any boundary markers. Position your vehicle correctly before backing and finish with your vehicle close enough to the curb. Know how to correctly park on a hill. Turn your front wheels in the correct direction and use your parking brake. Know how to perform a 90-degree backing maneuver. This is similar to backing into a parking space or driveway. Drive slowly, keep checking your mirrors and out your windows, and don't bump into any boundary markers. What Will Cause You to Fail Your Driving Skills Test? A road test failure can be caused by making many minor mistakes. Additionally, a number of major mistakes can cause an immediate failure. Disobeying a traffic law, such as a speed limit. Driving dangerously or carelessly, or doing anything that could result in an accident.Needing assistance from your examiner in controlling your vehicle or completing a maneuver. Being involved in an avoidable crash.Ignoring your examiner's instructions or refusing to cooperate. If you fail your road test, you'll be asked to complete a certain amount of driving practice before taking it again. Then you'll have to schedule another test, return to the testing site, and retake your test on another day. That's it! That's everything you need to know about passing the Minnesota driving skills test. We hope this guide has helped you out, and that you now feel comfortable with the steps moving forward. If you need any help studying for your upcoming exams, then Zutobi is the perfect study guide with online practice tests, a summarized handbook, and practical driving tips that will help you immensely during the actual road exam.